This expansive four-bedroom detached bungalow. Versatile lateral living space, ideal for multi-generational families or home working.

The heart of the residence is a spectacular open-plan kitchen and reception room at the rear, designed for large-scale entertaining with direct garden access. A practical utility room and guest cloakroom are conveniently located off the central hallway.

The adaptable accommodation includes a principal suite with a modern bathroom, plus three further well-proportioned double bedrooms and a central family bathroom. A standout feature is the self-contained annex wing, which boasts its own external entrance and kitchenette—perfect for an elderly relative, teenager's retreat, or professional studio. Ample integrated storage throughout ensures this substantial home remains as functional as it is spacious.
