OVERVIEW

The property is a 4/5 bedroom bungalow situated in an enviably private location at the end of a cul-de-sac amongst established properties nearby the River Thames in Maidenhead.

The property internally comprises an entrance porch with storage, an open plan living space including a dining space, a kitchen diner including a kitchen island, utility room, WC, a four piece bathroom and five bedrooms, with two of the bedrooms having ensuite facilities. Externally there is parking for multiple cars behind electric gates and wrap around gardens.

The property has been extended and much improved by a reputable builder in its recent history with additions such as underfloor heating throughout the property.

The property offers fantastic flexibility for its occupants with two of the bedrooms accessible from the main open plan lounge space that can be used as extra reception rooms such as a study and/or music room.

LOCATION

The property is situated on Lock Mead in Maidenhead, a well-established and highly regarded Berkshire town positioned approximately 25 miles west of Central London. The area benefits from a comprehensive range of amenities, with Maidenhead town centre offering shops, supermarkets, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities.

The River Thames and surrounding countryside provide a variety of recreational opportunities, while nearby towns and villages including Marlow, Cookham and Windsor offer further shopping, dining and leisure options.

Transport connections are excellent, with Maidenhead railway station providing Elizabeth line and mainline services to London Paddington, Reading and beyond. The nearby A4, A404(M) and M4 provide convenient road access to London, Reading, Heathrow Airport and the wider motorway network.

Overall, Lock Mead offers a convenient residential setting combining excellent connectivity, established local amenities and easy access to the Thames Valley.
