For Sale Freehold £315,000

Occupying a pleasant cul-de-sac position is this extended four bedroom detached family home, offering spacious and well presented accommodation throughout.

The accommodation is entered through a welcoming entrance hall, with a staircase leading to the first floor landing and a door opening into the spacious living room. This attractive reception room features a bay window, a marble fireplace and double doors leading into the separate dining room. A feature archway connects the dining room to the adjoining kitchen. A further door leads into the utility area, which wraps around the downstairs W.C. and provides internal access to the integral garage, completing the ground floor accommodation. To the first floor, the landing provides access to four well proportioned bedrooms and a modern three piece house bathroom. Bedroom one also benefits from its own en suite shower room. The property benefits from ample off road parking, provided by a generous resin driveway leading to an integral single garage with an electric roller door, power and lighting. Externally, a resin pathway continues along the right-hand side of the property, passing through a timber gate into the enclosed rear garden. A large paved patio spans the full width of the property, providing an ideal space for outdoor dining and entertaining. Steps lead up to an attractive lawned garden with planted borders to three sides. A substantial timber summer house with double doors and electricity provides a useful additional space. Timber panelled fencing encloses the garden on all three sides.

The property is within walking distance of local amenities and schools, with regular bus routes providing access to Wakefield city centre. The M1 motorway is also within easy reach, making the property well placed for those commuting further afield.

Only a full internal inspection will reveal the size and quality of accommodation on offer, and an early viewing is highly recommended.
