The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A well-presented detached bungalow ideally situated in the heart of Newport, within easy walking distance of local shops, cafes, the popular seasonal Monday market, and the Pembrokeshire coastline. Offering two double bedrooms, off-road parking, and an attractive rear garden, this property is perfectly suited to those seeking convenient single-storey living in a desirable location.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hallway, which provides space for a desk or study area. To the left, a door opens into the open-plan living, dining, and kitchen area. This welcoming space features a cosy living area centred around a feature fire. The kitchen is fitted with a range of matching wall and base units and enjoys a pleasant outlook to the front of the property. Patio doors open directly onto the rear garden, allowing plenty of natural light to flow through the space. There is also ample room for a dining table. The kitchen further benefits from space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer. The property offers two double bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with the added benefit of an en-suite shower room. A family bathroom completes the internal accommodation.

Externally, the property benefits from off-road parking to the side. The front garden has a landscaped section with a variety of mature shrubs and plants, while a paved pathway leads to the entrance. The rear garden can be accessed from either side of the property and is low maintenance, featuring gravelled areas, a patio seating space, attractive stone walls, and a selection of mature planting. A charming summer house and dedicated seating area provide the perfect place to relax and enjoy the garden.

The medieval town of Newport is known as 'the jewel in the crown' of North Pembrokeshire. The two largest beaches are Traeth Mawr (Big Beach, or Newport Sands) on the northern side of the Nevern Estuary, and The Parrog, ever popular with boat enthusiasts, on the south side. The Nevern Estuary is teeming with wildlife and birds. Carningli Mountain rises to the south of Newport, with standing stones, ancient forts and hut circles. The town also boasts a wide range of shops to cater for every need. There are also fine restaurants, street cafes and several pubs, as well as a tourist information centre.
