Freehold / House - Terraced

Holly Park Road, W7 1LA

£850,000

This handsome red brick fronted, Victorian terraced family house, offers spacious accommodation throughout, boasting high ceilings and features of the period including some fine fireplaces (including a real fire in the lounge). It features a light and airy bay fronted, through living room, with alcove cupboards, solid wood flooring and French doors to the garden, a smart white gloss, family sized fitted kitchen/breakfast room also opening onto the garden. Upstairs there is a modern first floor bathroom and 4 double bedrooms including an excellent sized loft conversion, with en-suite shower-room and enjoying a peaceful open aspect to the rear. Outside there is a good sized, mature and secluded garden with a leafy rear aspect. It benefits from double glazing and gas central heating (combi-boiler) and also has potential (subject to the usual planning consents) to a wrap around ground floor extension, if required.

Conveniently located on this peaceful road off Church Road, just a few minutes' walk from Hanwell Station for the excellent Elizabeth Line, offering speedy access to The City and Heathrow. A range of local shops (including the new Lidl and Sainsbury supermarkets), good local pubs, restaurants and regular bus services are all within easy walking distance. The property falls into catchment for well regarded schools - Hobbayne (Primary), St Josephs (Primary RC) and Drayton Manor (Secondary). The green open spaces of Brent Valley (Bunny) Park and golf course, are also close at hand.
