SOUTH EAST LODGE, WHEPSTEAD, BURY ST. EDMUNDS, SUFFOLK. IP29 4ST

Whepstead is an attractive, widespread rural village with the Norman parish church of St Petronilla and village pub. The cathedral town of Bury St. Edmunds lies about 5 miles north and provides a very comprehensive range of services and amenities. The A14 trunk road is about 4 miles and this provides fast access to Cambridge, Ipswich, Stansted Airport and London via the M11. Just 15 miles away is the town of Newmarket, world famous as the headquarters of British horseracing. The town is Britain's largest racehorse training centre and some of the finest racing in the world is seen on Newmarket's two racecourses.

This charming Grade II Listed semi-detached cottage occupies a wonderful rural setting whilst retaining quick access to local road and rail links. The versatile accommodation offers considerable character (fireplaces, exposed beams, leaded glass windows, etc) and is offered with no onward chain. Further benefits include a large outbuilding, extensive parking and established grounds. In all about 1.43 acres.
