About the property

Merton Green presents an attractive and deceptively spacious detached family residence, arranged over three floors and offering six bedrooms, set within a desirable development on the edge of the historic Roman village of Caerwent. Ideally positioned just off the A48, between Chepstow and Newport. The property provides excellent access to motorway links while enjoying the tranquillity of Monmouthshire's picturesque countryside, with an abundance of scenic walks and outdoor pursuits nearby.

Beautifully maintained by the current owners, the house is finished to a high standard throughout and benefits from a number of upgrades commissioned at the time of construction. These include granite kitchen work surfaces and an extended rear sitting room. Externally, the property enjoys a private, gated driveway leading to a double garage, together with gated side access and an attractive, low maintenance rear garden.

This executive five-bedroom home offers substantial and versatile living space. The ground floor comprises a welcoming reception hall, generous lounge, dining room, study, open-plan kitchen flowing through to the extended sitting room, utility room and cloakroom. The first floor provides four double bedrooms, including the principal suite with en-suite shower room, along with a well-appointed family bathroom. The top floor offers a versatile study/playroom/library area and two further bedrooms, one of which benefits from an additional en-suite.

Accommodation

Location

Enjoying a prime and private position within Merton Green, this exceptional family home combines modern convenience with a rich sense of place. Caerwent, founded by the Romans as the market town of Venta Silurum, remains one of the best-preserved Roman settlements in Europe, with the modern village thoughtfully developed around its remarkable historic ruins.
