Belsize Estates

£785,000

A rare opportunity to acquire this semi detached character home with many special features and additions in a location facing unobstructed views of a tranquil oak grove within protected grounds. The house also enjoys proximity to many desirable facilities:

The house is approached through a luscious front garden with parking and a quaint porch leading into a decorative tiled interior.

A drive through gated side access wraps around the east facing rear garden and leads to a double garage / office space with electricity. The garden with numerous established plants offers a spacious roofed area for outside entertainment.
