INTRODUCTION

Offered for sale with no onward chain, this smartly presented terraced home has been thoughtfully extended and updated to suit modern living. The heart of the home is the impressive open-plan living and dining kitchen, which features contemporary fittings and a multi-fuel stove that adds character to the dining area. Complementing the open-plan space, the separate lounge provides an additional living area centered around a feature fireplace. The property benefits from gas central heating and uPVC double glazing.

The first floor offers two well-proportioned double bedrooms and a contemporary family bathroom. A fixed staircase provides access to a converted loft space, offering versatile additional storage or hobby space, though it should be noted this area does not have formal building regulations approval. Outside, the property includes a low-maintenance front garden and a private rear courtyard with a patio area, perfect for outdoor dining within a secure fenced boundary.

LOCATION

Mill Lane is a row of cottages off Church Street situated within the conservation area of this picturesque village. Part of the west Hull village network, North Cave is well placed for immediate access to junction 38 of the M62/A63 leading into Hull city centre to the east and the national motorway network to the west. North Cave is also well placed for access to the historic towns of Beverley and York. The village itself has a number of local shops and primary school. The nearby villages of South Cave and Brough have further facilities with a supermarket and mainline railway station.
