40 Fellows Road, Cowes

£298,000

This pretty, period home is located in a residential road with good access to the town centre; mainland hi-speed ferry link and schools and is offered chain free. The home is smartly presented; very well appointed and deceptively large with a new gas central heating system. Arranged over four levels, the wonderful flexibility of the home provides a very exciting opportunity to create and develop and even more lovely home. The entrance level is arranged as a large sitting room and spacious, sleek modern kitchen/dining room, where stairs then lead down to the garden level and also to the first floor. There is a single bedroom; large double bedroom with a super Solent view and a chic bathroom on the first floor and the top floor is devoted to another large double bedroom with stunning Solent views. The garden level is arranged with under house storage and a utility area which links to the garden. The private and sunny rear garden has an outside cloakroom and the huge added bonus of a very large workshop/garage with a long driveway providing lots of tandem parking, accessed from Alexandra Road. The home has a lovely feel and is a real gem for a lucky buyer. Freehold. EPC D-63. Council Tax Band - B.
