This charming detached bungalow offers well-proportioned and spacious single-storey living, providing a highly functional and accessible layout. Upon entering, a welcoming central hallway features built-in storage and provides seamless access to all principal rooms. Situated at the front of the property is the main double bedroom, which boasts a classic bay window that draws in abundant natural light. The second bedroom is also a well-proportioned double room, featuring a side-aspect window that makes it ideal as a guest room. Serving the bedrooms is a practical central shower room equipped with a wash hand basin, low-level WC, and a walk-in shower unit, complemented by an adjacent separate guest cloakroom with its own WC and hand basin. Moving towards the rear of the bungalow, the heart of the home is revealed in a highly impressive, bright, and airy living room. This expansive reception space flows effortlessly into a dedicated dining room, creating a wonderful open feel that is perfect for family meals and entertaining. Both the living and dining rooms feature double doors that open directly out to the rear garden, seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor living. Conveniently positioned alongside the dining space is a practical
