IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Step inside and you'll find interiors that pair original character with a fresh, contemporary finish. The ground floor opens into a welcoming hallway, leading through to an impressive open-plan living space. At the front, a bay window brings natural light into the reception area, where herringbone flooring, decorative wall panelling and an exposed brick fireplace add warmth and personality. Further along, the kitchen features deep green cabinetry, pale worktops and brass detailing, creating a lovely contrast against the softer tones throughout. A third bedroom sits beyond the kitchen, while the private garden provides a peaceful outdoor retreat, with paved seating space, timber fencing and planted borders.

Upstairs, you'll find two further bedrooms and a family bathroom, all finished with the same care and attention. The main bedroom is particularly generous, with two windows allowing plenty of daylight to filter through, while the second bedroom offers flexibility for guests, children or working from home. Soft neutral walls and fitted carpets keep the bedrooms feeling restful. The bathroom has a clean, contemporary finish, with marble-effect wall tiles, brass fittings and a shower over the bath. The neutral tones give the space a fresh, understated feel, in keeping with the rest of the home.

WHAT ELSE?

· Bow and Mile End are both close by, giving you easy access to Roman Road's independent shops, cafés and popular market. Mile End Park and Victoria Park are also within easy reach, offering plenty of green space for weekend walks, cycling and time outdoors.
· Westferry DLR is a short walk away, offering easy connections to Canary Wharf, Bank and Stratford. Limehouse station is also nearby, with DLR and rail services providing further options for getting around East London.
· Narrow Street is a lovely place for a weekend wander, with riverside favourite The Grapes serving traditional pub food and views across the Thames. Limehouse Basin is also nearby, with waterside paths providing a pleasant route for exploring the neighbourhood on foot.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

“Bethnal Green has that rare balance of energy and ease - a neighbourhood that feels vibrant and creative, yet still genuinely liveable. There's a strong sense of community here, with a mix of long-standing East End character and a new wave of independent cafés, restaurants and bars that give the area its edge.

The beautifully reimagined Young V&A has become a real focal point for the area, and on Sundays, a short stroll takes you to Columbia Road Flower Market - one of East London's most iconic spots, full of colour, independent shops and great coffee.

Food and drink are a big part of the lifestyle here. You've got the much-loved E Pellicci for classic East End breakfasts, alongside favourites like Arepa & Co Bethnal Green and The Solo Kitchen & Bar for more contemporary dining. Evenings are well covered too, whether it's cocktails at Satan's Whiskers or something more relaxed at The Sun Tavern.
