

61 Bromley Crescent
Shortlands, Bromley, BR2 0HA
£600,000 Freehold EPC: Band D

 Maguire Baylis

Guide Price: £600,000 – £625,000. Maguire Baylis are delighted to present to the market this beautifully refurbished 1950s end-of-terrace family home, finished to an exceptional standard throughout and occupying a highly sought-after cul-de-sac location. Offered to the market with the added benefit of no onward chain, the property is ready for immediate occupation.

Having undergone a comprehensive programme of refurbishment, the accommodation is beautifully presented and thoughtfully designed for modern family living. To the front is an attractive bay-fronted living room, while to the rear the property opens into a superb open-plan kitchen/dining room, fitted with a stylish range of contemporary units, integrated appliances and French doors opening directly onto the newly landscaped rear garden, creating an ideal space for both everyday living and entertaining.

Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms, comprising two generous doubles and a comfortable single bedroom, all served by a luxuriously appointed family bathroom featuring underfloor heating and contemporary fittings.

Outside, the rear garden has been newly landscaped to provide an attractive and private outdoor space, perfect for relaxing or entertaining.

The property enjoys a particularly convenient location within easy reach of both Bromley South and Shortlands stations, offering excellent transport links into central London. Bromley town centre, with its extensive range of shops, restaurants and leisure facilities, is also within a short walk, while nearby Queensmead Recreation Ground and the popular Shortlands Tavern provide excellent local amenities. Families will also appreciate the excellent choice of well-regarded schools close by, including Highfield, Valley Primary, St Mark's and Harris Primary Academy.
