The south-facing rear lounge is a true highlight, boasting extensive bay windows that frame breathtaking views of the English Channel. This abundance of natural light creates a warm and inviting atmosphere, particularly during the enchanting Golden Hour. Such a picturesque setting is a rare find in Brighton and Hove, making this flat a unique opportunity for those seeking a coastal lifestyle.

Convenience is paramount, as the apartment is located on the third floor, providing an elevated perspective while remaining accessible via a passenger lift. This thoughtfully designed purpose-built block ensures that all residents can enjoy the splendid views without concerns of the often poorly soundproofed converted buildings.

Additionally, the property grants direct access to a communal rooftop terrace, which offers panoramic sea views. This rarely used amenity significantly enhances the living experience, providing an ideal space for summer gatherings or a peaceful yoga session under the sun.

The location is equally appealing, with the seafront and promenade just a seven-minute stroll away. Residents can enjoy a variety of local amenities, including Tennis, Padel, Pickleball, and vibrant eateries such as RockWater and Babble. The convenience of Boundary Road shops, a bus stop on your doorstep and Portslade mainline station, which offers direct trains to London Victoria, further enhances the desirability of this property.

In summary, this apartment presents a rare opportunity to enjoy coastal living in a peaceful setting, with stunning views and excellent amenities nearby.
