External

Hillcroft sits just off the centre of this popular village and has the benefit of generous gardens, a parking space and a garage.

The mature gardens extend to approximately 0.24 acres, are well maintained and feature a number of seating areas and a summerhouse with power connected that stands on a terrace giving far reaching views over surrounding countryside.

The Garage/Workshop (4.64m x 3.10m) features a pair of timber doors to the front, two windows, a maintenance pit and has both power and light connected. To the rear of the garage there is a store which is currently used for storing logs.

To the side of the garage there is a parking space for one car. Adjacent to the parking space there is a useful coal store.

Additional Information:

The postcode is DL11 6RE and the Council Tax Band is C. The property is freehold, with the garage and parking area being leasehold with 1,632 years remaining. An Absolute Leasehold Title was applied for by the current owners which comes into effect in 2028. This is the most secure form of legal ownership.

The property is being sold CHAIN FREE and the owners would be open to selling fixtures and fittings under separate negotiation.
