Upon entering the apartment, you are welcomed into a private hallway that includes a useful linen and storage cupboard, which also houses the hot water cylinder.

The living room is bright and airy, featuring two double glazed windows and patio doors that open onto a private terrace which is an ideal spot to take in the distant valley views.

This space flows openly into the fitted kitchen, which is equipped with a range of timber-fronted wall and base units, complementary work surfaces with an inset sink and half with drainer and co-ordinating part tiled walls. Integrated appliances include a built-in double oven and a four-ring induction hob with extractor hood, along with dishwasher, washing machine and space for a fridge freezer. A double glazed window adds further natural light and an electric heater provides warmth.

There are two generously sized double bedrooms, both positioned at the front of the property and overlooking a mature garden area.

The shower room is well-appointed, comprising a three-piece suite including; a walk-in shower cubicle with panelled walls, wash hand basin and WC. The walls are part tiled and the room also features a wall mirror, heated towel rail and extractor fan.

Outside, the property offers ample off-road parking for residents and guests, and the communal gardens are beautifully maintained, providing a tranquil setting with impressive views of the surrounding Lakeland fells.
