An aerial photograph of a coastal town, likely Rock in Cornwall, England. The town is built on a hillside overlooking a harbor filled with numerous sailboats and motorboats. The water is a vibrant turquoise color. In the background, there are rolling green hills and a clear blue sky. The town features a mix of residential buildings, some with solar panels, and a parking area. A stone wall runs along the waterfront, separating the town from the harbor.

LOCATION

Located in Rock, 4 Medrose is situated in one of the most sought-after destinations along the North Cornish coast renowned for its outdoor leisure activities including sailing, canoeing, water skiing, gig rowing, windsurfing, golf, and scenic coastal walks. The area boasts an abundance of fine beaches in particular Rock, Daymer Bay and Polzeath, as well as good, year-round shopping facilities. Within the local area there are a wealth of excellent restaurants and pubs including The Mariners Pub in Rock, Nathan Outlaw's Restaurant in Port Isaac, Rick Stein's Seafood Restaurant and Paul Ainsworth's No. 6 in Padstow. The ferry and water taxi provide easy access to Padstow with an enjoyable ferry trip across the river. The market town of Wadebridge is located just five miles away, it is home to an excellent range of shops and independent restaurants.
