In 2024, the property was stripped back to brick and comprehensively renovated, including new electrical and plumbing systems, along with new windows, all installed to the latest standards and regulations. The home also benefits from a range of smart-home-ready features.

At the heart of the property is a bespoke German-engineered kitchen, complemented by a bright living room and dining area, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. Upstairs are three well-proportioned bedrooms with bespoke fitted wardrobes and a beautifully finished family bathroom.

The property offers ample storage throughout, a generous private driveway, garage, and a rear garden perfect for relaxing and outdoor dining.

Finished to an exceptional standard, this turnkey home offers stylish modern living in one of Maidenhead's most desirable locations, with excellent transport links, schools and local amenities all within easy reach.
