

The Corner House, 1 Pursglove Road

Tideswell, SK17 8LG

Description - Internal

As you step through the porch, you are welcomed into a stunning open-plan lounge, enhanced by new UPVC doors that invite natural light. The lounge features a central log burner, providing a warm and inviting atmosphere, while the period surround and hearth add a touch of character. The layout flows seamlessly into a zoned dining area, leading to a dual-aspect kitchen at the rear. This bespoke kitchen is a true highlight, showcasing modern fittings and an abundance of natural light, thanks to the charming wooden beams and dual aspect windows. The kitchen is well-equipped with numerous fully fitted appliances and units, complemented by a convenient pantry/store area.

The first floor offers a versatile space that can serve as a main bedroom or a spacious spare room, complete with its own bathroom. This level is adorned with wooden beams and built-in storage, creating a harmonious blend of modern comfort and traditional charm. The family bathroom features a tasteful three-piece suite, designed to reflect the character of the home.

Ascending to the top floor, you will find a large double bedroom that boasts original beams and delightful views of the village. Additionally, there is a smaller bedroom, perfect for use as a home office or study.

This remarkable home is ready for you to move straight in, offering a unique combination of character and contemporary living. With its thoughtful renovations and inviting atmosphere, The Corner House is a property not to be missed.
