welcome to

Farfield Avenue, Knaresborough

A three-bedroom detached family home in a sought-after location, offering spacious and versatile living accommodation. In need of modernisation, the property also provides excellent potential to extend (subject to planning). With a garage, driveway and enclosed garden this is a fantastic opportunity

Situated in the heart of a highly sought-after residential area, this spacious three-bedroom detached home offers fantastic potential. While some modernisation is required, the property provides an excellent opportunity for buyers to personalise or extend the space (subject to the necessary planning consents).

A bright and welcoming entrance hall leads into a generous lounge, separate dining room, and a well-proportioned fitted kitchen. Upstairs, you will find three comfortable double bedrooms and a family bathroom, providing ample room for modern family living.

Outside, the property boasts a private rear garden—perfect for relaxing or entertaining—alongside a driveway and a detached garage offering added convenience.

With excellent local amenities, strong transport links to Harrogate, and access to highly regarded schools, this home is ideal for families seeking both vibrancy and tranquillity in a prime location.
