6 Rhigos Gardens, Cardiff CF24 4LS

In this sought-after location overlooking the Gardens is this deceptively spacious, Freehold mid-terrace house of character that retains some lovely period features. It is a double-bayed mid-terrace house with attractive facing brick elevations, and the roof is of slates. At the front is a pretty walled forecourt garden, and an arched entrance porch. At the rear is a delightful garden of good size that has a timber and brick-framed garden room, and there is a garage with rear vehicular lane access. There is also on-street parking with permits. The property has the benefit of gas central heating from a Worcester combi boiler situated in the kitchen and thermostat-controlled radiators virtually throughout. It is also double-glazed. The EPC Rating is D. The Council Tax Band is F. Natural Resources Wales consider the flood risk in the area as very low.

The area has a host of excellent local amenities within easy reach that include shops, stores and supermarkets on Crwys Road and Albany Road, junior and senior schools, excellent transport links, popular pubs, bistros and restaurants, a local library, parks and recreational facilities that include Maindy Leisure Centre and the beautiful Roath Park with its flower garden and boating lake, all close-by. It is also within easy reach of the city centre, Cardiff University, UHW, and is only a short drive from Eastern Avenue and Northern Avenue for access on to the M4.
