LOCATION

Cranage is a small Parish located between the villages of Holmes Chapel and Knutsford which provide for most day to day shopping requirements. The latter of which has many historical associations including the famous Tatton Park Country Estate. Close by there are some beautiful country walks and whilst on the fringe of Cheshire's open countryside, the property is by no means isolated and within easy reach of the North West motorway network and Manchester International Airport. There are rail stations at both Holmes Chapel and Knutsford which provide a regular commuter service to most commercial centres. For the sports person there are leisure centres in Knutsford and Holmes Chapel and at the private leisure complex at Cranage Hall. There are also a number of notable golf courses within easy reach. The area is well known for its excellent educational facilities and there are several good schools close by to suit children of most ages.
