Description

Situated in a highly sought-after and convenient location, this charming mid-terrace cottage is brimming with character and original features throughout. From exposed wooden floorboards to original fireplaces, the property effortlessly blends period charm with modern living.

The ground floor comprises a welcoming reception hall, a cosy living room, and an attractive dining area featuring an original fireplace. The dining area flows seamlessly into a modern fitted kitchen, with double doors opening out to the rear garden, perfect for entertaining and indoor-outdoor living. A ground floor bathroom is conveniently located adjacent to the dining area.

To the first floor, the property offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, along with a generous attic/storage area, providing excellent versatility for storage or potential to convert subject to planning permission/building regs. Externally, there is a garden to the front, while the generous rear garden is a real highlight, featuring a substantial summer house ideal for use as a home office, studio, or hobby space.

This is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a characterful home in a desirable location, ideal for families, professionals, or those seeking period charm with modern comforts.

Situated in the village of Tutshill, this property benefits from local amenities such as a convenience store, family-run butchers and a café. Excellent schools and picturesque countryside walks are also nearby. The pretty market town of Chepstow is just a short distance away, offering a wider range of facilities. With convenient bus and rail links, as well as excellent road networks, larger towns and cities are easily accessible for commuting purposes.
