DESCRIPTION:
Offered to the market is this four-bedroom detached family home, tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac and enjoying elevated views across Andover, while remaining within easy walking distance of the town centre. The well-proportioned accommodation comprises a living room, kitchen, dining room, conservatory, cloakroom, four bedrooms and a family bathroom. To the front, a generous driveway provides ample off-road parking and leads to the garage. The rear garden is fully enclosed and secluded, offering an ideal space for family life and outdoor enjoyment.

LOCATION:
Andover offers a range of shopping, educational and recreational facilities, including a college of further education, a cinema, theatre and leisure centre. The mainline railway station runs a direct route to London's Waterloo in just over an hour, whilst the nearby A303 offers good road access to both London and the West Country. Cornfields can be found on the southern side of Andover off South End Road via Old Winton Road which has its own convenience store and also benefits from being on a town centre bus route. The location provides good access not only to the town centre but also open countryside with the start of the historic Ladies Walk just a few metres from the property. Rooksbury Mill Nature Reserve, Harewood Forest and the outlying Clatford villages are all a short distance away also, with Andover Golf Club located on Winchester Road and the Hampshire Golf Club a short distance further on as Winchester Road heads towards Wherwell and Chilbolton with the Test Valley and small town of Stockbridge beyond. Stockbridge straddles the River Test which flows through its high street and offers an abundance of independent specialist shops, tearooms, pubs and restaurants, many of which serve local produce.
