The Indoors

The open-plan kitchen, dining and living room is the social heart of the home, measuring almost 18ft wide and filled with natural light from full-height glazed doors leading onto the balcony. The contemporary kitchen is finished with soft sage cabinetry, white worktops, open oak shelving and integrated Siemens appliances, creating a clean, understated aesthetic with plenty of storage.

Wood-effect flooring flows throughout the living space, while large aluminium-framed windows maximise light and frame leafy park views. A separate utility cupboard keeps everyday essentials neatly tucked away.

Both bedrooms are well-proportioned doubles. The main bedroom enjoys fitted wardrobes, peaceful views over Haggerston Park and direct access to the balcony, while the second bedroom is equally versatile as a guest room, nursery or home office, also benefiting from balcony access.

The apartment is served by two stylish bathrooms. The principal bathroom features a full-sized bath with overhead shower, while the second offers a generous walk-in shower, both finished in large-format porcelain tiles with contemporary fittings.

The Outdoors

A covered private balcony runs along the rear of the apartment, creating a natural extension of the living space with room for seating and planting. Glass balustrades and uninterrupted views make it a wonderfully peaceful setting, offering a rare sense of openness in such a central East London location. From morning coffee to evening drinks, it provides a quiet spot to enjoy the changing seasons above the treetops.

Loving The Location

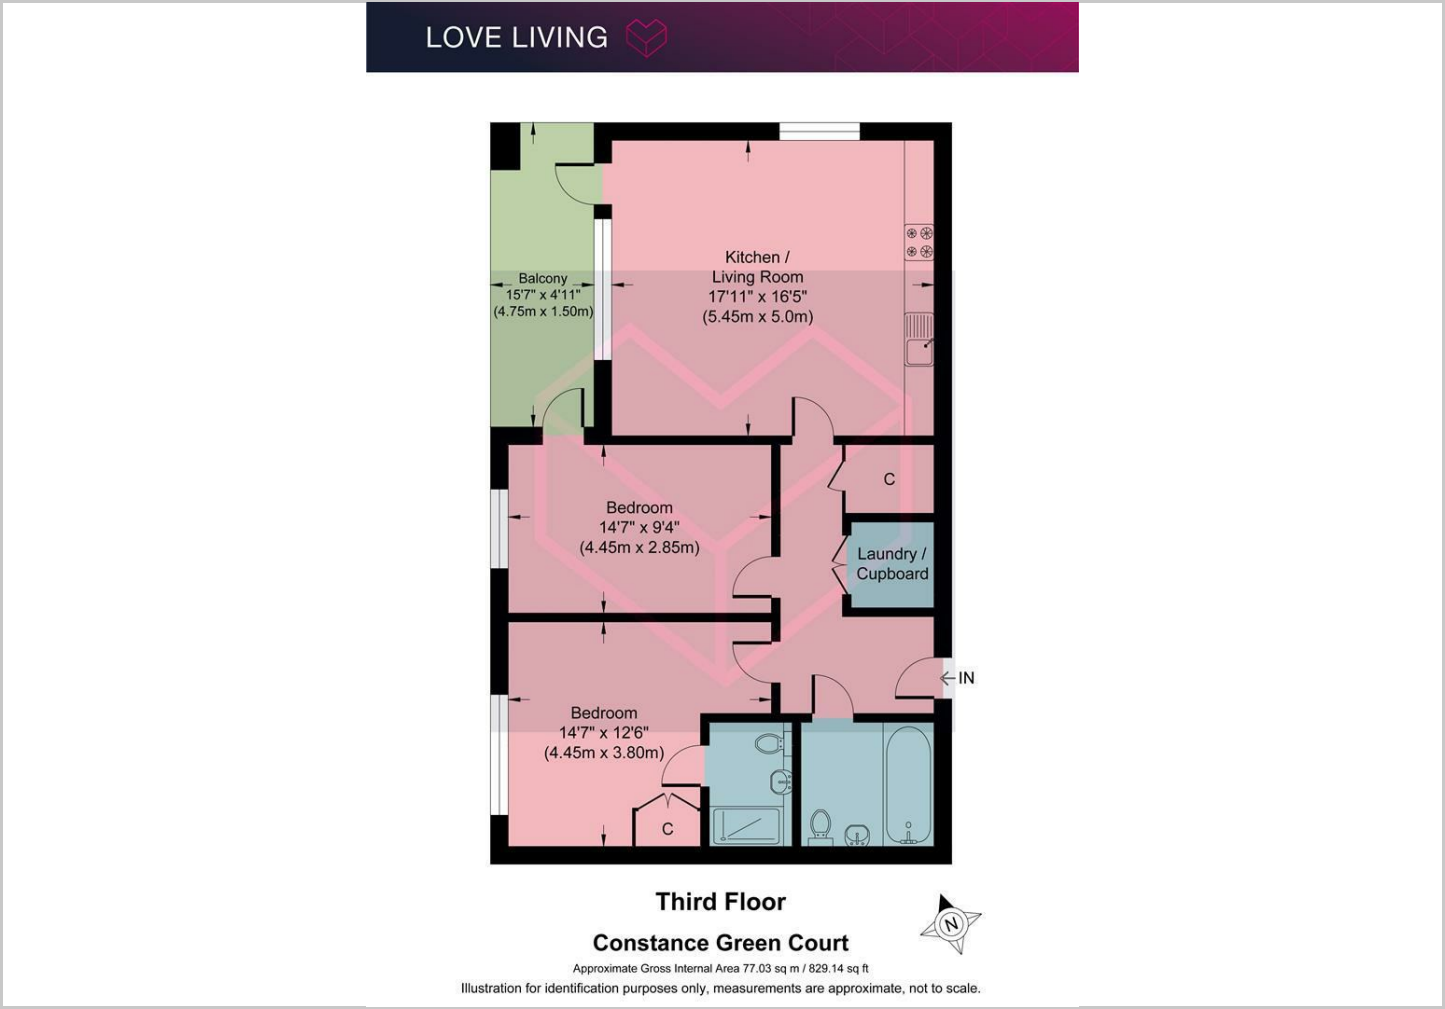

Goldsmiths Row is one of East London's most sought-after addresses, positioned directly opposite Haggerston Park and within easy walking distance of Broadway Market, London Fields and Victoria Park. Just a few minutes from the apartment is Hackney City Farm, a much-loved local institution with its café, gardens and community events, offering a unique green escape in the heart of the city.

The neighbourhood is renowned for its independent cafés, acclaimed restaurants, artisan bakeries and weekend markets, while Columbia Road Flower Market is also close by. For outdoor enthusiasts, Haggerston Park, Regent's Canal and Victoria Park provide miles of green space, walking and cycling routes right on your doorstep. Haggerston, Cambridge Heath and Bethnal Green stations are all within easy reach, offering excellent connections to the City, Shoreditch, Liverpool Street and beyond.
