Description

15 Carlton Road is a three-bedroom, semi-detached former local authority house built circa 1946 with brick elevations under a pitched tiled roof, situated in the popular village of Carlton, on the outskirts of the market town of Saxmundham.

The property offers well-proportioned accommodation arranged over two floors, comprising an entrance hall, sitting room, dining room, kitchen and useful ground-floor store. To the first floor are three double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The house now requires a comprehensive programme of renovation and refurbishment throughout, offering an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to modernise and improve a property to their own requirements.

Further benefits include double glazing and gas-fired central heating throughout.

Outside

The property is approached from the highway via a pathway leading through the front garden to the front door. A further pathway runs around the side of the property, providing access to the rear garden.

It should be noted that Flagship will retain part of the garden, with the new boundary positioned one metre from the gable wall. This retained area will be sold separately and is subject to separate negotiation.
