Located within the heart of Edgworth village is this fantastic garden fronted stone terraced property with simply stunning views over open fields and countryside to the rear. Edgworth is a highly sought after area on the outskirts of Bolton which is surrounded by beautiful open countryside and close to the Wayoh reservoir where many people go for walks and take in the scenic views that it offers. Within close proximity there are local shops, the Black Bull pub and also the Spread Eagle restaurant. If you enjoy your cricket then Edgworth Cricket Club is also a short walk away whilst Bromley Cross Railway Station is a short drive and will take you to Manchester and beyond. The accommodation within this wonderful cottage comprises an entrance hallway, lounge and dining room, which are open plan, and a superb kitchen extension to the ground floor. The first floor has two good sized bedrooms, a three piece shower room and stairs leading to the loft room which is currently used as the third bedroom and has the added benefit of a three piece en-suite comprising a wc, pedestal sink and bath. Externally there is a low maintenance garden to the front with a flagged courtyard to the rear which enjoys wonderful views over fields and countryside.
