

Widgeon Way, Horsham, West Sussex, RH12 2LX

woodlands

Brought to the market for the very first time since the property was built in the 1960's, and sold with no onward chain, this much-loved home presents an exceptional opportunity for buyers seeking a property with remarkable potential. Neighbouring houses have already demonstrated how successfully these plots can be extended or remodelled (stpp), giving future owners the chance to create a truly impressive family residence in one of Horsham's most sought-after pockets.

Tucked away along the rarely available Widgeon Way, the setting itself is a real treasure. With Horsham Park and Warnham Nature Reserve both close by, families can enjoy beautiful green spaces, play areas, and peaceful walks, all while remaining within easy reach of the bustling town centre. It is no surprise that homes in this discreet location are so keenly searched for, and the fact this property has never changed hands speaks volumes about its appeal.

The house is set back behind a private driveway with space for two vehicles, positioned in front of an integral garage that offers additional parking or exciting scope for conversion into further ground-floor living space, subject to the usual consents. A secure porch leads into a bright and welcoming entrance hall, where doors open to all ground-floor rooms and a convenient guest WC.

The spacious triple-aspect living room is a standout feature, bathed in natural light throughout the day. With two sets of French doors opening directly onto the wraparound rear garden, it is a wonderful area for family time or quiet relaxation. The separate dining room enjoys garden views and provides a generous setting for gatherings and entertaining. From here, a door leads into the kitchen, fitted with a selection of wall and base units and offering space for freestanding appliances.

Upstairs, the first floor hosts four comfortable double bedrooms, all benefiting from built-in storage solutions, along with a well-proportioned family bathroom.
