About The Property

Looking for a period home with original character and sweeping views? This 1920s/30s style house combines parquet floors, stained glass and bow windows with outstanding outlooks across Crug Mawr and the Preseli Hills.

This striking 1920s/30s style home makes the most of its elevated position, with truly special views to the rear stretching across Crug Mawr and out towards the Preseli Hills, while to the front there are pretty outlooks over the village.

Set back from the A487, the house is reached via its own private driveway with space for three to four vehicles. A pathway and steps lead up to a canopied veranda with a tiled floor, giving access into the porch. The porch retains its original stained-glass walls and door, a character feature that sets the tone for the rest of the property.

The hallway showcases original parquet flooring, continued into both the lounge and dining room. High ceilings and generous proportions run throughout the house, and there is a wood-panelled understairs cupboard, the original stained-glass circular window to the front, and stairs to the first floor.

The lounge sits to the front, centred around a fireplace with wood burning stove on a slate hearth, and a bow window providing light and outlook across the village. The dining room offers plenty of space for a family table and enjoys its own bow window to the side.

The kitchen is fitted with matching wall and base units, 1.5 sink with drainer, and a freestanding Flavel Milano 100 range cooker with double ovens and five-ring hob. From here an opening flows into the utility room, with further storage, plumbing for appliances, a door out to the rear garden and decked patio, and the oil-fired, Worcester combi boiler which was replaced in 2025. A ground floor WC with wash basin completes this level.

Details Continued:

On the first floor are three bedrooms and the family bathroom. Bedrooms one and two are both generous doubles; bedroom one has built-in wardrobes, a front bow window with views across the village, and a side window framing the landscape beyond. Bedroom two also has striking views, with outlooks over Crug Mawr and across the Preseli Hills. Bedroom three is a small double or comfortable single, enjoying rear countryside views. The bathroom is well-proportioned, fitted with a bath, double shower, toilet and vanity basin.

Externally:

Outside, the rear garden is enclosed with gated side access. A detached garage provides additional storage, along with a lean-to wood store and a further shed at the far end. The garden itself is mainly laid to grass, with a decked area for seating directly outside the back door. Steps lead up to the oil tank positioned at the rear.

This is a fine example of its era, with original features retained, modern comforts in place, and some of the best panoramic views West Wales has to offer.

Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the location and outlook.
