NO FORWARD CHAIN

An exceptional opportunity to acquire a detached family home, rich in character from the early 1900s, offered to the market with no forward chain. This distinctive property, formerly part of the local Police Station, provides spacious and adaptable living. The ground floor welcomes you with two generous reception rooms, offering versatile spaces for relaxation and entertaining. A well-appointed ground floor bathroom adds to the convenience. Ascend to the first floor where you will find three comfortable double bedrooms, complemented by an additional shower room, ensuring ample accommodation. Situated on Paynes Road in Freemantle, the property has on-street parking only but offers easy access to local amenities and transport links. This unique home presents an excellent prospect for those seeking a property with historical charm and practical living spaces.
