Situated in the small hamlet of Kerris Vean and located in a rural location and backing onto farmland is this recently updated single storey two bedroom barn conversion, believed to have been converted in the 1980's. The beautifully presented accommodation comprises of two double bedrooms, lounge/dining room with wood burner and vaulted ceiling, kitchen, bathroom and orangery/sun room. There are gardens to three sides of the property, mainly laid to lawn and enclosed by granite hedging to the front and wooden fencing to the rear backing onto farmland and gravelled parking for several vehicles. The property is offered for sale with no onward chain, is double glazed where stated and a viewing is highly recommended. The nearest village is Paul with its associated amenities and is situated on the outskirts of both Newlyn and Mousehole.
