Positioned within the desirable Southgate area on the edge of the Gower Peninsula, this home is surrounded by a landscape of coastline and open countryside. Nearby beaches provide year round enjoyment, while local schools, cafés and village amenities create a strong sense of community. Swansea city centre remains easily accessible for wider connections.

The property has been comprehensively renovated by the current owners, resulting in a calm and cohesive interior. A welcoming hallway leads to a well balanced arrangement of living spaces. The lounge, with an adjoining office, offers a quieter retreat, while the centre of the home is given to an impressive kitchen and living space designed for both everyday use and entertaining. Bi fold doors open directly onto the garden, allowing light to flow through and creating an easy connection to the outside. A utility room and cloakroom complete the ground floor.

Two of the bedrooms are positioned on the ground floor, each with its own en suite, offering flexibility for guests or family living. The principal bedroom occupies the first floor, with a dressing area and en suite, providing a more private setting.

Externally, the plot extends to around 0.11 acres. A private driveway to the front allows parking for several vehicles, with provision for electric gates and a charging point. The rear garden is enclosed and thoughtfully arranged, with a patio for outdoor seating leading onto a lawn bordered by established planting. An outbuilding adds further practicality.

A carefully considered home in a well regarded coastal setting.
