ISLAND OWNED & RUN SINCE 1990

SOLD

A rare opportunity to acquire an outstanding barn development in one of the Isle of Arran's most picturesque rural settings, combining traditional character with exceptional potential to create a truly individual home.

Set amidst stunning island scenery, this attractive stone barn offers the perfect canvas for a sympathetic conversion, blending authentic period features with contemporary design.

The setting offers the very best of Arran living, with breathtaking countryside views, peaceful surroundings and easy access to the island's renowned beaches, mountains, golf courses and outdoor pursuits. Local amenities are within easy reach, allowing buyers to enjoy rural tranquillity without sacrificing convenience.

Development opportunities of this calibre are increasingly scarce on Arran, making this an exceptional prospect for those seeking to create a bespoke island home in an unforgettable location.
