

A traditional thatched cottage with a brick chimney and a dark door. The house is built with red brick and has a thick, grey thatched roof. A dark, arched door is the central feature, flanked by windows. A wooden bench sits on a small paved area in front of the door. The background shows lush green trees under a blue sky with white clouds.

Location. Farnborough is an attractive downland village in the sought-after OX12 area, surrounded by rolling countryside and positioned around four miles south of Wantage. Mentioned in the Domesday Book, the village offers a peaceful rural setting with a strong sense of character, historic charm and far-reaching walks close by, while still being within easy reach of everyday amenities. The nearby market town of Wantage provides a broad range of shops, cafés, restaurants, pubs, supermarkets, schools and leisure facilities, together with regular bus connections to surrounding towns. For commuters, the area is well placed for access to the A34, A338 and A417, with Didcot Parkway providing mainline rail services to London Paddington, Reading, Oxford and Bristol.

Other Material Information. The property is thatched.
