On first entry via the front door, you meet the characterful dining room with original features such as beams, and an original range as well as built in alcoves and double glazed window and slate window seat. Space for a dining table, and finished in a truly traditional style.

The kitchen offers a good range of wall and base units with white wooden work tops with stainless steel protectors, tiled splashbacks and quarry tiled flooring. An AGA with twin hot plates warms the room nicely, and a window over stainless steel sink offers rear aspect. An integrated Hisense dishwasher and Fridge as well as space for an integrated microwave. Original beams add style and charm.

The adjoining Utility is a good size and houses plumbing for washing machine, ample base units with concealed freezer. Hooks to wall for coats and access to the rear garden and garage for 1 car and storage. Leading back through to the main house, you enter the sitting room, continuing the traditional theme with original wooden beams, a multi-fuel wood burner with slate surround and space for furnishings. One side of this room is utilised as an office/study space, which could be removed to create a larger living space, or kept divided to continue its use as a well established home office.

The garden room has stone flooring and is dual aspect making it bright with patio doors to decking outside and a view of the fells. Ample space for furnishings and is a relaxing place to enjoy all year round. From here you can access the downstairs cloak room. Two double glazed windows, towel radiator, built in shallow storage cupboard. This room houses the Worcester boiler and Quarry Tiled floor and WC with sink.

The original oak staircase with useful pantry under takes you to the first floor, and Bedroom 1 which is a double. An aspect to the garden and window seat makes this room a lovely place to enjoy, and a compact built in storage cupboard is useful. The en-suite is spacious and well presented, with under-eaves storage to both sides and ample shelving. Light wooden detailing and finishes are characterful, with a sizable airing cupboard, currently used as an additional wardrobe space. A WC, vanity sink and mirror with 2x base units for additional storage. A bath and traditional style tap and shower head. Bedroom 2 is a double with built in storage. Original beams and Lake and fells are viewed from a separate office/ sitting space with a large 'picture' window which can easily be tailored for personal needs. A large window here allows a fabulous outlook, and a door to the balcony is a great novelty. Bedroom 3 is a King room with space for furnishings, is dual aspect making it naturally bright. Your attention is drawn to the panoramic views to the Lake and Fells, and a glass double glazed French door offers access to the balcony overlooking one of the most sought after views. The balcony is sizable enough to hold a table and chairs, perfect for enjoying in the evenings in warmer weather. Below here is the beautifully maintained walled garden.

Bedroom 4 has a rear aspect and is a double, with some restricted head height and original traditional features.

The bathroom has tiled floors and is stylish, with a large shower with tasteful granite tiles. WC and vanity sink with storage below and wall mounted towel heater.

Outside is accessed from the main front door and the utility door to the side. Following the pathway to the side of the property with shrubbery and to the rear is a gravelled area. The Driveway to the front allows parking for multiple cars, and a well maintained gate with archway over leads to the front garden, which is beautifully presented with gravelled pathways, mature shrubs and lawn. A pathway leads to decking area featuring outdoor seating and opportunities for more furnishings with water feature, stone wall and mature shrubs. This is a perfect haven to enjoy in fairer weather.

A stone patio behind also boasts outdoor seating.
