SITUATION

Lying on the southern edge of the Blackmore Vale there are splendid views of the surrounding countryside. The quaint former market town of Sturminster Newton is 3 miles away offering a handful of boutique shops, a small supermarket, sports centre, a secondary school, 2 public houses and 2 growing commercial business estates. The Georgian town of Blandford is 6 miles away offering high street shops and a more comprehensive range of recreational and commercial facilities. Leisure pursuits are well catered for in the area. The Dorset Jurassic Coast is within an hour's drive and there is a good network of footpaths and lanes for walking and cycling and golf at Ashley Wood and Rushmoor.

SERVICES

Mains water and electricity are connected to the property. Private treatment plant drainage. Air source heat pump.
