ACCOMMODATION

The ground floor offers a well-balanced layout with excellent natural light throughout. The main lounge is a calm and welcoming space, benefitting from direct access to the patio via French doors and a connecting door into the conservatory, creating a seamless link between the garden-facing rooms and an ideal setting for both everyday relaxation and entertaining.

The heart of the home is a spacious open living, dining and kitchen area, providing a sociable hub for family life. The kitchen is fitted with a range of units, integrated appliances and generous worktop space, flowing naturally into the dining area, while the adjoining living area enjoys pleasant garden views with door opening to a Juliet balcony. The conservatory further enhances the sense of space and light and provides an additional seating area overlooking the garden.

The ground-floor accommodation also includes a well-proportioned home office ideal for remote working, a second reception room suitable as a snug or playroom, an entrance porch/utility, a welcoming hallway and a downstairs WC.

To the first floor, a central landing leads to the principal bedroom suite, incorporating fitted wardrobes, a separate dressing area and a large en-suite bathroom fitted with a bath, separate shower, WC and hand basin. There are three further double bedrooms, including bedroom two which benefits from its own modern en-suite shower room, together with a house bathroom fitted with a bath and shower over. All the bedrooms have TV connections.
