A well-proportioned detached family home, set within the popular village of Rufforth, offering comfortable accommodation with scope to modernise and adapt over time, and offered for sale with no onward chain.

The ground floor opens with a welcoming entrance hall leading through to a generous sitting room, where a feature fireplace forms a striking focal point - a signature of its builder's characterful style. Double doors open to the rear garden, creating a good connection between internal and outdoor space. The ground floor also includes a separate dining room and a kitchen with an adjacent utility room, as well as a handy study - all presenting scope to reconfigure or improve as preferred.

To the first floor are four bedrooms, providing excellent accommodation for a growing family, alongside a family bathroom. The layout is practical and well balanced, with rooms of comfortable proportions that lend themselves well to cosmetic updating rather than major alteration.

Externally, the property enjoys a generous garden, offering plenty of space to landscape and enjoy, while remaining manageable. A particular feature is the detached double garage, fitted with two individual electric roller doors, with driveway parking in front for multiple vehicles, ideal for families or those needing additional off-street parking.

Rufforth is a peaceful village on the western edge of York, set within attractive countryside yet offering excellent commuter links into the city and beyond. The village has a strong community feel, with local amenities including a primary school, village pub and convenient access to regular bus routes, with the ring road, Acomb and York city centre all within easy reach providing wider retail, leisure and travel options.

Built by renowned local builder Hogg, the home retains many of the classic touches associated with its heritage, offering a solid foundation for a lovely family home with scope to modernise, and the added benefit of no onward chain.
