Description

Bluebell House forms part of this very modern and desirable development which enjoys a superb situation on the edge of Endcliffe Park, very conveniently placed for access into the city centre via the main hospitals and universities and also the excellent local amenities in Nethergreen and at Ranmoor. This fabulous apartment has a superb and spacious open plan living kitchen with access onto an L shaped balcony which overlooks the lovely communal gardens and there are modern fixtures and fittings throughout. For those looking for privacy and the option to lock their home up and leave this superb home will tick a lot of the boxes and it would also be perfect for those wishing to downsize or to use as a pied-à-terre. Riverdale Road is one of the most exclusive and desirable localities in Sheffield, being so conveniently placed for the city but residents can also make their way out into the glorious surrounding countryside via scenic walks through Endcliffe and Bingham Parks.
