The Harrison

A Cosy Yet Refined Victorian Residence

The Harrison is a delightful two bedroom Victorian-style house, featuring a moulded cornice and an elegantly crafted doorcase that adds to its classic appeal. The exterior showcases the ornate detailing and balanced proportions characteristic of Victorian architecture. Inside, the home offers comfortable living spaces, intricate mouldings, and ample natural light. The Harrison combines historical elegance with modern functionality, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a cosy yet refined residence.

Celebrating George Harrison

A Champion of Gothic Revival

This house is named after George Harrison (1787–1861), a British architect known for his work during the early 19th century. His designs often incorporated elements of the Gothic Revival style, reflecting a deep appreciation for medieval architecture. The Harrison house type pays tribute to his contributions to British architectural history.
