GARDENS

Bluebell Cottage sits in a mature landscaped garden of 0.45 acres. It is accessed via a pair of electric gates from Rhydd Close which open to a long bloc pave driveway flanked by mature flower and shrub beds that opens to a spacious parking area with plenty of space to turn and with the garages opening onto it. The first part of the garden that sits between the garaging and the house includes a sheltered seating area to enjoy the morning sun, lawn with fruit trees, an area with raised beds and a green house, two timber garden stores and space for clothes drying close to the utility. The majority of the garden is south and west facing with a number of seating areas with space for table and chairs and outside dining, formal lawns, mature trees and shrubs, cabana, and to the west fabulous panoramic views over common land to enjoy the sunsets along the Malvern Hills. There is direct access onto the common making it easy to walk into Barnards Green or take dogs for a walk with out need to cross roads.

DIRECTIONS

From the Allan Morris office in Great Malvern proceed down Church Street and to the traffic island at Barnards Green. Take the third exit in the direction of Upton and go past the duck pond and the Bluebell Inn on the right hand side.
