

4 James Street, Huddersfield, HD7 4DS

Offers over £200,000

A newly fully refurbished throughout well-proportioned and versatile three bedroom terraced home set across multiple levels, located in the sought-after village of Marsden (HD7 4DS). This characterful property offers generous living space, flexible accommodation, and a layout well-suited to modern family life or those working from home.

The accommodation briefly comprises: a spacious living room on the ground floor, providing a bright and comfortable main reception area. To the lower ground floor is a large dining kitchen, offering excellent space for cooking, dining and entertaining, with a practical layout and good storage potential.

To the first floor is a double bedroom along with a house bathroom, while the second floor hosts a further double bedroom and separate shower room,

