Extending to approximately 6.73 acres (2.72 hectares).

Location

The land is situated respectively between the Oxfordshire villages of Ardley and Fewcott, and benefits from three separate access points from the public highway. Both Ardley and Fewcott provide a basic range of local amenities, with the market town of Bicester (4 miles southeast) offering a wide variety of everyday services, amenities, and employment opportunities.

The land benefits from excellent road links with the A43 and B4100 in immediate proximity, and Junction 10 of the M40 situated approximately 1 mile northeast. Bicester and Milton Keynes provide access to mainline railway services running to London Euston, London Marylebone and Birmingham New Street.

The location is shown on the plan.

Description

The land is a single enclosure of permanent pasture extending to 6.73 acres (2.72 hectares) or thereabouts and benefits from three access points off of the public highway: Somerton Road, Ardley Road and Orchard Road. The land benefits from a mixture of post and wire stock fencing and mature hedgerow and tree boundaries throughout. The property is relatively level, with a well situated within the property. It is understood that the land is designated within the Cherwell Conservation Area.

According to Natural England, the land is classified as Grade 3 on the Agricultural Land Classification maps, being free draining lime-rich loamy soils with moderate fertility.

The land is being marketed as agricultural but could be suited to equestrian use or alternative uses subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents.

Services

It is understood that the property does not benefit from any services. There is a well located in the property which has historically been used to pump water to supply the land.

Purchasers should make their own enquiries regarding the location of the mains service supplies. The cost of providing such services to the site will be at the purchaser's own expense.

Tenure & Possession

The land is being sold Freehold from Title Number ON289027. The intention is to exchange and complete as soon as practically possible. Vacant possession will be given upon completion.
