➤➤ IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You have striking canalside views to savour from the balcony, both bedrooms and your open plan kitchen/diner. The latter totals an impressive 230 square feet, with twin flanks of floor to ceiling windows framing those magnificent vistas. Smooth engineered hardwood flows underfoot, and your artfully segmented kitchen is home to smoky grey cabinetry, matt worktops and high end appliances, including wine fridge.

Your primary suite features more of those floor to ceiling windows, fitted storage and a sleek en suite shower room finished in dramatic vertical letterbox tilework of a deep glossy ocean blue, with a walk in rainfall shower. Bedroom two is another double, with its own sliding door access to the balcony, eighty square feet of sheltered outdoor space to enjoy all year round. Finally, your family bathroom is another striking affair, with more deep blue designer tilework.

Outside and you have two landmark London parks within easy reach. Victoria Park, one of the capital's oldest public spaces, is just five minutes on foot, with over 200 acres of greenery, ornamental gardens and a boating lake. The Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park is closer still, with world class sporting facilities and renowned landmarks. Both are splendid spaces for morning runs, evening strolls and afternoon picnics.
