"Taking a coffee/wine out into the garden (and allotment), looking out at the view across the city and watching the sun rise over the hills around Bath. It feels like you're in the country side with the views, birdsong and the wildlife, but within 5 minutes you're having brunch in a great cafe on the Gloucester Road after school drop off! We've had the best fireworks and light displays and watched the glory of the balloon fiesta from the comfort of our own garden and bedroom!"
