A beautifully presented three-bedroom semi-detached home, positioned just off Church Street in the very heart of Wells-next-the-Sea, offering a compelling blend of coastal character and contemporary design. Thoughtfully arranged and filled with natural light, this is a home that has been carefully considered for both everyday living and relaxed entertaining.

The first floor forms the focal point of the property, where a striking open-plan kitchen, living and dining space unfolds. Enjoying a south-facing aspect, this room is bathed in sunlight throughout the day. The layout boasts clearly defined yet connected areas for cooking, dining and unwinding. Doors open directly onto a raised balcony deck, extending the living space outdoors and providing the perfect setting for morning coffee or evening drinks, accompanied by fresh coastal air.

The accommodation is both balanced and versatile. Three well-proportioned bedrooms are arranged to suit a variety of lifestyles, whether as a permanent residence or a coastal retreat for family and guests. Two bathrooms serve the home, finished in a clean and contemporary style. In addition, a further room on the upper level offers an ideal space for a home office.

On the ground floor, the connection to the garden is seamless. A delightful garden room enhances the overall flow of the home, offering an additional space to gather, dine or simply enjoy views of the outside. This room works equally well as an entertaining area or a quiet retreat, adapting effortlessly with the seasons.

Atypical, yet deeply homely - a house that feels both unique and comforting from the moment you arrive.

The outside space is a particular highlight. The south-facing rear garden is generous and thoughtfully arranged, providing a sense of privacy and calm. Designed for ease and enjoyment, it features multiple areas for seating and entertaining, including the raised decking and two separate patio spaces, ideal for summer barbecues and alfresco dining. The garden strikes a balance between practicality and charm, offering both open areas for relaxation and more intimate corners to unwind.

Practical features have been equally well addressed. Off-street parking, a valuable asset in such a central coastal setting, while the double garage provides excellent storage or potential for further use, subject to requirements.

The location is one of convenience and lifestyle. Just a short walk leads to the quay, where the ever-changing harbour views create a distinctive backdrop to daily life. The elegant green of the Buttlands, independent shops, and well-regarded places to eat are all within easy reach, allowing for a pace of living that feels both connected and unhurried.

Offered with no onward chain, this is an exceptional opportunity to acquire a light-filled, well-appointed home in one of North Norfolk's most appealing coastal towns. Whether as a main residence, a second home or an investment, it presents a considered balance of style, comfort and location.

Life here has always felt more relaxed - a slower pace, with nature and community right on your doorstep.

Behind the bustling harbour, seek out sought-after fishermen's cottages or apartments with sea views in converted buildings. Further afield, discover spacious grand houses and new-build developments ideal for families and downsizers. The town boasts a lively community with schools, a GP surgery, and a library.

Explore Nomad and the Bowerbird for homewares, Christopher William Country for country clothing, and Ele and Me for eco-friendly children's items. For culinary delights, visit Arthur Howell's traditional butcher or The Real Ale Shop at Branthill Farm.

Dine at The Globe Inn or Crown Hotel for meals overlooking the green, or indulge at Michelin-starred Morston Hall. For a simpler pleasure, enjoy fish and chips from French's on the harbour wall as the sun sets over the water.
