DESCRIPTION

Situated in a popular residential suburb of Chester, conveniently located close to local shops, schools, the city centre and major motorway networks, this three-bedroom mid-terrace property offers excellent potential for improvement and is ideal for buyers looking to put their own stamp on a home. Benefiting from gas central heating and UPVC double glazing, the accommodation comprises an entrance hall leading to a spacious living room with an open-plan aspect to the dining room, creating a bright and versatile living space. The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and wall units and provides access to a covered side passageway, which in turn leads to a useful brick-built outbuilding with power and lighting. To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom fitted with a three-piece suite.

Externally, the property features a low-maintenance brick-blocked front garden, while to the rear there is an enclosed garden with a paved patio area, lawn and mature shrub borders. Offering scope for modernization throughout, this is an excellent opportunity to acquire a home in a sought-after and well-established location.

LOCATION

Situated in the popular and well-established suburb of Upton, this property enjoys a convenient location close to a range of local shops, supermarkets, schools and everyday amenities. Chester city centre is easily accessible, offering an extensive selection of retail, leisure and dining facilities, while excellent transport links via the A41, A55 and M53 provide straightforward access to Liverpool, Manchester, North Wales and beyond. The area is particularly popular with families due to its proximity to a number of well-regarded primary and secondary schools.
