Working for you and with you

Flat 13 St Mary's Court
Station Road, Herne Bay, CT6 5NA

Originally opened as the Grand Hotel in 1899, this landmark building has a fascinating history and an enduring sense of timeless elegance, later being converted into luxury apartments and renamed St Mary's Court.

Situated within easy reach of public transport links, Herne Bay town centre and the seafront, this exceptionally stylish and spacious apartment offers an appealing combination of space, convenience and accessibility.

A welcoming entrance hall creates a lovely first impression from the moment you step inside.

The lounge/diner benefits from a large bay window to the front, creating a comfortable and inviting space for both relaxation and entertaining and an attractive, well-fitted kitchen could easily accommodate a bar table, ideal for informal dining. Two generous double bedrooms and two washroom facilities add further convenience, with the principal bedroom benefiting from an en-suite shower alongside a smart, contemporary bathroom.

Further benefits include a share of the freehold, residents' and guest parking, communal gardens and a lift providing access to all floors.

All in all, this is a superbly presented and generously proportioned apartment, combining period character with modern comfort in a highly convenient location.

Location & Lifestyle Amenities

Herne Bay is a charming seaside town on the north coast of Kent, known for its Victorian heritage, traditional seafront, and relaxed coastal lifestyle.

Within a short walk (0.3 miles) Herne Bay Memorial Park is a lovely green haven offering an ideal blend of natural beauty, recreational space, and community spirit. The park provides a serene escape from the bustle of daily life, making it a key lifestyle attraction for residents of all ages. Whether you're seeking active recreation or quiet relaxation, the park enhances the quality of life for all.

Public transport links are on the doorstep with Herne Bay railway station, a couple of minutes on foot, providing direct links to London Victoria and London St Pancras.

Local bus services provide access to Canterbury and Whitstable.

Good road connections are available via the A299, providing convenient access to London via the M2 and Dover via the A2.

More extensive shopping and leisure facilities are available in Canterbury (8 miles) and Fashionable Whitstable (5 miles).
