LOCATION

St. John's is a charming village that blends traditional character with convenient modern living. Centred around a quintessential village green and a selection of local shops, the village is further enhanced by the picturesque Basingstoke Canal, which meanders through its heart. Just to the south lies the prestigious area of Hook Heath—renowned for its wide, leafy avenues and grand residences, including many by the famed builder Tarrant—making it one of Woking's most desirable addresses. While enjoying a peaceful setting, St. Johns remains exceptionally well-connected. Woking Town Centre is just a short drive away and has seen significant regeneration in recent years, evolving into a vibrant hub with an impressive mix of restaurants, cafes, shops, and cultural venues including the New Victoria Theatre and a multi-screen cinema at the Peacocks Centre.
