This elegant and rarely available home has not been brought to market for over 20 years and offers beautifully proportioned, versatile accommodation, rich in period character and charm.

The property is discreetly set behind an impressive eight-foot wall, opening onto a generous and attractive front garden. The grounds wrap around the western side of the house, creating a wonderfully private and elevated setting, leading to a secluded garden at the rear with gated access onto King Street.

A welcoming entrance hall provides access to the principal reception rooms. The elegant drawing room features a large sash window overlooking the front garden and benefits from a striking open fireplace, while a separate living/dining room with fitted cabinetry offers additional, flexible entertaining space.

The kitchen/breakfast room is well-appointed with a range of base and eye-level units, offering ample storage and space for appliances. This flows seamlessly into a beautiful conservatory/garden room with a lantern roof, creating a light-filled space with direct access onto the garden, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. Further ground floor accommodation includes a generous utility room with access to a covered walkway and side garden, as well as a cloakroom.

Upstairs, the first floor comprises four well-proportioned double bedrooms, served by two fitted family bathrooms.

Externally, the property is complemented by a stunning, mature walled garden featuring raised terraces, established planting, shrubs and trees, and areas of lawn, all enjoying an elevated and highly private aspect. The property further benefits from a garage and driveway parking, along with excellent potential for annexe conversion STPP, offering additional guest accommodation.
